

Leeds Palliative
Care Network

LPCN Echo Programme for Allied health professionals in the city of Leeds.

Learn best practice and develop palliative care skills and Knowledge in an interactive online platform.

Who is the programme for?

Physiotherapist and Occupational therapists who support people with terminal illness, long term conditions, frailty and old age.

Why Echo (Extension of community health outcomes)

Learn through didactic presentations presented by expert speakers

Problem solve through case studies

Learn from one another

Share best practice

Developing a community of practice linking with professionals working in other organisations throughout the city.

Fully funded through LPCN

Session Details

Sessions will be through tele-education therefore a laptop/ I-pad with a microphone and internet connection is required.

Sessions last approx. 90 minutes.

A certificate of attendance will be provided on completion on the programme once you attend 4 or more sessions.

Dates, times & topics

Date	Times	Topic
Tuesday 25 th February 2025	14:00 – 15:30	Advance Care Planning
Wednesday 26 th March 2025	14:00 – 15:30	Communication
Wednesday 23 rd April 2025	14:00 – 15:30	Pain Management pharmacological and non-pharmacological management
Tuesday 20 th May 2025	14:00 – 15:30	Breathlessness/ Anxiety pharmacological and non-pharmacological management
Wednesday 11 th June 2025	14:00 – 15:30	Recognising deterioration including Gold standard framework
Tuesday 1 st July 2025	14:00 – 15:30	Wellbeing and resilience
Tuesday 16 th September 2025	14:00 – 15:30	City wide PEOL care communication and connection

Facilitators: Palliative Care Clinicians from Leeds.

Booking: – To book onto this programme please email: LPCNcourses@st-gemma.co.uk to receive a link to the registration form. (Please note, your place is only secure once you have completed the registration form).

All training will be held virtually via MS Teams. Once you have booked on you will be sent further information with the links.

If you have any questions, please email: LPCNcourses@st-gemma.co.uk